Earn the CSCS Credential

Earn the Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist® (CSCS®) Credential!

To earn the prestigious CSCS credential, you must pass one of the most challenging and respected exams in the fitness industry. Identify yourself as truly competent in the strength and conditioning arena by demonstrating an exceptional level of knowledge in topics such as anatomy, exercise physiology, biomechanics and testing/evaluation. By building on your current knowledge and earning the CSCS credential, you can attract athletes to your practice.

Contact the NSCA Certification Commission for more information about the CSCS exam. Call 888-746-2378 (toll free), e-mail leader@nsca-cc.org, or visit our award-winning Web site at www.nsca-cc.org.
